Re: United States v. Harry Castro
13 Cr. 478 (JGK)

Dear Judge Koeltl:

I write on behalf of my client, Harry Castro, with two requests: first, that the Court temporarily modify Mr. Castro's bail conditions to allow him to visit his mother for approximately two weeks and second that the Court adjourn the date of his sentencing.

With respect to the requested bail modification, Mr. Castro would like to travel to Florida to stay with his mother for approximately two weeks. He has been out on bail since his arrest on February 25, 2013, and has been compliant with the conditions of his release. His bail conditions previously have been modified to allow him to visit family in Boston and Florida. Both Assistant United States Attorney Damian Williams and Pretrial Services Officer Jeff Steimel consent to this request. If the Court approves this request, Mr. Castro will inform Mr. Steimel of his travel itinerary and will comply with any reporting requirements ordered by Mr. Steimel.

With respect to the sentencing date, I respectfully request that the Court adjourn the sentencing to the week of May 19. The probation office needs additional time to complete the presentence report and the parties need additional time to discuss the potential applicability of proposed Guideline changes to Mr. Castro's advisory sentencing range. AUSA Williams consents to this request as well.

Thank you for your time and attention to these matters.

Respectfully submitted,

Peggy Cross-Goldenberg
Attorney for Harry Castro
